First, we want to highlight our Podcast. As of this newsletter we are closing in on 100 episodes! Laura, Kevin, and Joseph have brought clinical, biblical, and life experience to each recording. Every week, for 30 minutes, we bring a subject that is close to the heart of what our clients are going through, and we want to give solid common sense solutions.

This resource can be used by clients, peer counselors, pastors, and associated individuals. Together we have years of clinical, biblical, pastoral care, life coaching and life experience. We started the podcast because there was great material in the counseling sessions. Laura and Kevin saw the benefits of recording a podcast and it was a confirmation to both individually. Joseph had over a decade of experience producing podcasts, mentorship, and pastoral care, so it was a no brainer to the three of us. We could see God's hand in bringing us together. The podcast can be found on our website, or you can subscribe to it on iTunes.

We Need Your Help!

We are looking for corporate, church, and individual partnerships for our ministry. Mental health is one of the most sought after and talked about subject our society is focused on, but they are missing the Biblical truths that God's Word has to offer. Churches are finding themselves unable to handle some of the challenges they are presented with, and they need a safe place to send their members. We are that place, but we need your help. Encouragement Now Ministries (ENM) is donation funded. Monthly partnerships are the backbone of our ministry. This allows us to train up counselors, minister to the needs of churches and individuals, and grow our ministry. We are a 501(c)(3) organization that can be that place. Talk to your company about donating to ENM, and consider a monthly partnership. Every dollar is connected to a soul.

Another resource is our website. On it we have a Resource Page that is always changing. As we cover new subjects we add other resources to the website. These resources can be books, videos, or websites that have already produced great material. There is no point in re-inventing the wheel when we can point you in a good direction for clinical or practical solutions. We try to vet the material the best we can, but we know that some things can change between posting and updates. Some of the sites we point to are: Reboot Recovery, Grief Share, Financial Peace University, and various apps and articles that we find that have to do with relationship advice, pornography accountability, and mental health. We hope that you will take advantage of this resource and share it with everyone you know!

These resources are free because of our donors. We could not do this without your help. We want to thank our donors whether they are clients, churches, or individuals who see the value in our mission. We, like all non profits, rely on donations to keep the lights on and pay for the services needed to produce our resources, counsel clients, and train peer counselors. Will you help us in this mission? We need monthly supporters to partner with us. There is a QR Code, below, that will take you to our giving portal. Thank you in advance for partnering with Encouragement Now Ministries.
